Welcome to our show !

Welcome to “Picture This”, our sixth show at the Rhoda McGaw theatre featuring dancers from Woking Dance Space and guest performers from the First Dance studio.

Since our last show we have welcomed many new faces as students, teachers, and even a new trustee, and we are delighted that the studio has become such a vibrant and thriving community resource. Of course this is only possible with the help and hard work of an army of volunteers and supporters, including you, our audience. So a huge thank you to you all!

This year we have created a theme for the first act, based around the concept of dancers at an art gallery, and we really hope you enjoy the result.

Best wishes

Gretchen Fox Kiefer (Show Director)
American Jazz, Advanced Ballet

Dancing and teaching for over 25 years, Gretchen is a former professional dancer with Island Moving Company (USA). She did numerous tours, performances and out reach programmes with Island Moving Company, and also performed with Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre and several Colorado ballet companies. Gretchen also choreographed for Island Moving Company, Little Theater of the Rockies and the University of Northern Colorado.

Claire Tabraham
Beginners Tap, Intermediate Tap

Claire is a regular member of Woking Dance Space where she is now enjoying passing on her enthusiasm and passion for dance teaching adult tap. Claire has danced from the age of three and has regularly performed in many shows, including performances at the Royal Albert Hall and the New Victoria Theatre. Her choreography has been performed in the Royal Albert Hall, Docklands Arena and Birmingham Indoor Arena, and in numerous shows and pantomimes.

Eithne Last
Intermediate Ballet, Contemporary

After training in London and Southampton Eithne danced professionally on television, in musicals and solo performances. She has taught extensively throughout southern England; working for theatre schools, colleges of Continuing and Higher Education and private studios. Eithne has been involved with Woking Dance Space since 2002.

Melanie Orchard
Theatre Jazz, Street Jazz

After graduating from the Italia Conti Academy of Performing Arts Melanie went on to train with Anne Reinking at the Broadway Theatre Project, Florida. She has since performed in various shows and promotional events and also worked for Granada media television. She choreographs and teaches for a number of Performing Arts schools and has recently finished choreographing for Cambridge University Press.

Gill Barnes
Daytime Tap, Daytime Jazz

As a child Gill attended the Eileen Denny School of Dancing during which time she performed at the Kingston Empire and Richmond Theatre. She has since taken part in several stage, fashion and cabaret shows, both amateur and semi-professional. After joining Woking Dance Space she now enjoys the challenge of teaching and choreography.

Katie Brewer
Improvers Tap

Katie started dancing at her grandmother's dancing school, the Jeanne Brewer School of Dance in Woking. At 13 she went on to dance at Harmony Dance Studio (now Woking Dance Space). After graduating from University she returned to Woking Dance Space as a pupil and now teaches the Beginners Tap class.

Jasmine Lewis
Theatre Tap

Jasmine has danced with the Karen Clarke Theatre School since she was eight and has completed both her Tap and Modern ISTD exams; she is currently completing her ISTD teaching qualifications. She has just graduated from the University of Surrey gaining a 2.1 in Dance and Culture, she is now exploring the life of a freelance dance teacher whilst setting up her own dance party company and promoting dance within the early year's education.

Emma Harris
First Dance

Emma trained at The Jazz Dance School in Bath and at Bodyworks Performing Arts School in Cambridge. She has appeared in and choreographed numerous productions and is currently running First Dance Studio at the Mayford Centre.
